

Introducing
The TUTTLES with AJ LEE

The West Coast's hottest new bluegrass band.

Pete Wernick, Hot Rize, “A.J. Lee and Molly Tuttle are the kind of singers who can bring you into a song, and create a duet blend that makes the senses stand at attention. It’s remarkable that they’re both teenagers. Molly’s younger brothers, Sullivan and Michael, are playing strong and agile leads on guitar and mandolin. Jack Tuttle, one of the most respected music teachers in Northern California, helps bluegrass take root in the next generation.”

Kathy Kallick, Grammy and IBMA award-winning bluegrass singer & songwriter, “The picking is HOT and the singing is complex and gorgeous... chills up and down my spine! Michael and Sullivan played virtuoso solos that made me burst into laughter, as I do when music delights and amazes me.”

California Bluegrass Association CD Reviewer, Brenda Hough, “This band is on a trajectory to fame – intense and passionate vocals, precise and complex instrumentation and an engaging and varied song selection.”

Molly Tuttle plays guitar, bluegrass and old time banjo, sings, and writes songs. She's performed at IBMA's Youth All-Stars show, San Francisco's Hardly Strictly Bluegrass Festival, and is featured in Flatpicking Guitar magazine and on Pandora Internet Radio. This is Molly's second CD.

AJ Lee sings and plays mandolin and fiddle. She co-hosts IBMA's new "Discover Bluegrass" DVD and has performed at the IBMA Youth All-Stars show and many other events. AJ was named "California's Hottest Singer" by Californiality.com.

Sullivan Tuttle

Sullivan and Michael play blazing solos on guitar and mandolin. They are featured in YouTube's viral video, "El Cumbanchero," with over 1.4 million views and rave reviews.

Michael Tuttle

Jack Tuttle leads this band and has taught music for the past 25 years to many stand-out students, including his children. He was awarded a lifetime membership in the California Bluegrass Association. Jack is the music editor for Fiddler Magazine and author of twelve instructional bluegrass music books.

The Tuttles with AJ Lee

978 Van Auken Circle
Palo Alto, CA 94303
(650) 320-8733
JackTuttle.com
TheTuttlesWithAJLee.com